Pastor's Notes

Mary was unlike any other.
Joseph, her husband, was unlike any other.
Jesus was unlike any other.

Mary and Joseph are unequaled in their faithfulness to God, trusting beyond what seemed humanly possible.

Jesus, "God with us," cannot be equaled as there is nothing known to man that can compare to the Word of God, that which fashioned the universe and brought all of creation into existence, now made flesh and living among us.

Of course, these are tenets of our faith. They do not hold the same value for others who find God hard to accept, let alone comprehend. They are not the beliefs of secularists, scientologists, humanists, or relativists.

No, this Holy Family is not one that would find life easily lived in our world and our time. Of course, when we consider their experiences of their own time and place, not a thing is probably different — just different names for the same unbelief's.

Today, our faith as Christian Catholics is unlike any other. We face the same struggles as did Mary and Joseph in accepting and believing God's plan of salvation, and of our own active participation in that plan. But we bravely hold to that which has been passed down from the first apostles and disciples, and therefore, endure that which is not of God, for the sake of what is of God. Yes, we're like Mary and Joseph in that we believe that which many others refuse to believe.

We believe in God and our need for God's presence in our world.

We believe that God's word speaks to this culture as it did when written, not losing its voice, strength, or purpose.

We believe that through the words and actions of Jesus, Scripture fulfilled, we possess seven unique signs of "God with us."

We believe in sacramental forgiveness.

And we believe in the real presence of our Lord and Savior in the Eucharist, the Body and Blood offered for us by the One unlike any other. We believe the offering continues.

We believe in saints — eternally alive as well as real and present in today's world — all ready to assist us as friends desiring what is best for us.

We believe in the tradition and teaching of the Church, handed down from Peter and the Apostles.

A Blessed Christmas to All!

To our visitors, family members and friends home for the treasure of Christmas, to our college students home from their studies, to our homebound and infirm, to those we'd like to see more often, and to our faithful parishioners with us each week, I pray that we are a blessing for you as were Jesus, Mary and Joseph to shepherds and kings. I join with Fr. Mike Susłowicz, Deacon Joe Vannucci, and our entire staff, in wishing you a yours a birth of our Lord in your hearts and lives each day of the year.

Love and prayers,
Fr. Tom Galvin, Pastor

We hold these beliefs, and more, because we also believe in the death and resurrection of Jesus unlike others.

We believe that the life of the Christ is given in its fullness to the baptized.

And we believe that the Spirit of God enlivens the faithful to go beyond the unbelief's of those whose hearts and minds say only one thing: "That can't be!"

But we know otherwise. We have come to believe — unlike so many others.

Many Thanks to all who have helped in many ways and activities during Advent as we prepared for our celebration of Christmas.

- The Music Ministry for leading us in the new music, and for their wonderful effort in making our Christmas liturgies so beautiful.
- Those few but faithful men who spent a couple Saturdays preparing the campus, hauling Christmas trees, and erecting the Nativity.
- The Ladies of Charity for another successful execution of the St. John's "Angel Tree" touching hundreds of lives.
- To you, our faithful parishioners who came through yet again with an abundance of gifts (over 600) for the Angel Tree. Your beauty shines.
- To the many who have blessed Fr. Mike, the staff, and myself with cards, gifts, and goodies.
- To all who helped last Sunday, and during the week, making final preparations for today.
- To the members of our Parish Staff for their dedicated service to all our parishioners, guests, and community.

God has been very good to us. We are thankful for the gifts of faith and trust in the One who Is.

Love and prayers,
Fr. Tom

Songs of Praise: Music Ministry

Choirs for all ages! Anyone who like to sing and would like to join a choir, St. John's has many choices:

Adult Choir

The Adult Choir is the most active ensembles of the parish, singing at Mass each weekend and for major feasts and holy days throughout the year. The primary role of the choir is leading the congregation in song at Mass. The choir also enhances the Mass by singing a variety of choral music ranging from chant to classical to contemporary.

Cantors

The Cantors play an integral role in the Mass by demonstrating and leading the congregation in all musical aspects of the Mass.

Handbell Choir

The Handbell Choir is an enthusiastic ensemble that loves to bring their unique sound to Mass. Along with providing extra accompaniment to the hymns, the bell choir also plays handbell literature that incorporates various techniques to elicit a mixture of sounds from the bells. Members are of all ages.

Praise Band

The Praise Band is a high school aged ensemble that specializes in contemporary music. This energetic group of young people utilizes the piano, guitar, electric bass, drum set, and vocals to bring their music alive.

School Cantor

The School Cantors are students from St. John the Baptist School who sing during the week at school Masses. These students assume the responsibilities of cantor and choir by leading and supporting the musical components of the Mass.

Junior Choir

The Junior Choir is a parish-wide children's choir. This choir leads the congregation by cantoring all of the music at Mass. Any child of the parish in grades 4-8 can participate in this choir. They sing once a month at the 9:00 a.m. Mass, and at Christmas and Easter.

Cherub Choir

The Cherub Choir is a group of children who joins the Junior Choir at Christmas and Easter. Any child from the parish in grades K-3 is welcome to join.
